Tomorrow is the final day to purchase vehicle stickers without additional fees, risk of tickets

Chicago City Vehicle Sticker grace period ends July 15, ticketing begins July 16

Tomorrow - Monday, July 15 - is the final day to purchase a 2013-2014 Chicago City Vehicle Sticker without incurring late fees and risking the possibility of additional fines. The Office of the City Clerk recommends motorists make their purchases in-person tomorrow as the seasonal rush comes to a close.

The City Clerk's satellite offices will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday.

Motorists can also purchase Chicago City Vehicle Stickers until the close of business at one of nearly 400 community partner vendors including currency exchanges and Dominick's grocery stores. More information about vehicle stickers and our store locator page can be found at chicityclerk.com/city-stickers-parking/storelocator/.

Monday, July 15 marks the end of the traditional Chicago City Vehicle sticker grace period. On Tuesday, July 16, enforcement and ticketing will begin across the City of Chicago. Tickets are a minimum of $200. In addition to the ticket fine, violators are required to purchase a full-price Chicago City Vehicle Sticker AND pay a late fee of $60, a total of at least $345 in tickets and fees for most passenger vehicles.

Motorists who avoid tickets and purchase a Chicago City Vehicle Sticker after July 15 will still be required to purchase a full-priced sticker AND pay a late fee of $60, or a total of $145 for most passenger vehicles.

The cost of a Chicago City Vehicle Sticker purchased before July 16 is $85 for most passenger vehicles and $135 for large passenger vehicles.
